Child Evangelism Fellowship of Kentucky

Never before in the history of America have we witnessed such a cultural assault on our children. Our children live in a culture of chaos. Our spiritual foundations are crumbling. And since a child's moral compass is usually set in place by age nine, we are not looking at a bright future for our country.

The future of any society can be predicted by one factor: how it raises its young. Child Evangelism Fellowship of Kentucky can help your church take deliberate steps to correct the cultural assault on our children right here in our own state.

May God bless you with wisdom as you consider partnering with CEF of Kentucky.

—Kari Ash, CEF of Kentucky State Director

The Purpose of CEF®:

Child Evangelism Fellowship® is a Bible-centered organization composed of born-again believers whose purpose is to evangelize boys and girls with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ and to establish (disciple) them in the Word of God and in a local church for Christian living.

CEF
CHILD EVANGELISM
FELLOWSHIP®
Reaching children worldwide™

✦ Who is Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF)?

CEF is a Bible-centered, worldwide fellowship of born-again believers. Founded in 1937 by the Rev. Jesse Irvin Overholtzer, CEF is headquartered in Warrenton, Missouri, and is the largest evangelistic outreach to children in the world. CEF has a presence in all 50 states and most countries of the world. Hundreds of thousands of volunteers work side-by-side with CEF to share the Gospel with children around the globe. CEF Press® publishes materials in more than 100 languages.

✦ Who is CEF of Kentucky?

The Kentucky Chapter of Child Evangelism Fellowship International ministers to unchurched and churching children throughout Kentucky. Currently, CEF of Kentucky has four local chapters and six` missionary staff, actively serving 55 of the state's 120 counties through several different ministries, including the Good News Club® (GNC®) held in elementary schools. Other counties are served directly through the state office.

✦ How is CEF of Kentucky funded?

A faith-based, 501(c)(3) organization, CEF relies solely on the gifts of God's people. CEF of Kentucky is supported by churches, individuals, foundations, and corporate sponsors. CEF of Kentucky receives no funds from the national or international CEF ministries. Our financial policy is to ask God and tell His people about ministry needs within our state.

✦ Can we really teach the Bible in public elementary schools?

Yes! See the 2001 Supreme Court case synopsis on page 10.

✦ How can CEF of Kentucky serve you and your church?

- By offering a three-way partnership between your church, your community, and CEF.
- By partnering with you to motivate, support, mentor, and encourage the people in your congregation to minister beyond the walls of your church.
- By opening channels of communication with county school boards, local school principals, community centers, military bases, and youth detention centers.
- By offering strong curriculum and practical training to equip your people to reach the next generation.

✦ How can you help us continue on the mission of reaching the next generation?

- Join us in praying for the salvation of members of the next generation.
- Place CEF of Kentucky in your church's missions budget.
- Adopt a local public school to host and conduct a Good News Club.
- Invite CEF to be part of your missions conferences/events.
- Invite a CEF missionary to speak at your church.
- Bring awareness to your community by participating in CEF community events.
- Host a CEF community informational meeting or training session.
- Place CEF of Kentucky links on your church website.
- Tell other pastors and Christians about CEF ministries.

Benefits of Partnering with Child Evangelism Fellowship®

Partnering with CEF of Kentucky:

- ✦ Provides a fun and impactful way to mobilize church members of all ages for missionary outreach opportunities in your community.
- ✦ Gives your church visibility in the community and among other churches.
- ✦ Builds trust and relationships with unchurched children and families.
- ✦ Establishes a safe haven for unchurched families—giving them somewhere to turn when needs arise or when they are looking for a church to attend.
- ✦ Helps your congregation maintain a vision for lost souls through verbal reports, sharing prayer needs and praises, and bulletin inserts regarding club activities and testimonies.
- ✦ Trains and develops new volunteer workers not only for your Good News Club but for your church's children's ministry and mission teams.
- ✦ Increases the outreach of your children's ministry program.
- ✦ Provides contact with new families (of Good News Club participants), whom you can invite to special church activities.
- ✦ Facilitates the spiritual maturity and leadership growth of team members through their ministry involvement in neighborhoods and schools.
- ✦ Leads to church growth.
- ✦ Allows your church to be a blessing to children, their school(s), your community, and the nation!

Next Steps to Partnership with Child Evangelism Fellowship®

Next steps to hosting and conducting a Good News Club:

1. Meet with a Child Evangelism Fellowship representative for planning.
2. Pray as CEF* introduces the Good News Club to the local Board of Education or Superintendent. If the school board has not already given equal access to the public school facility, a CEF representative will begin the process of opening the doors. The law approves equal access, but opening a school requires meetings, phone calls, and the presentation of legal documents. This is preliminary legal work that CEF does on your behalf—thereby creating solid working relationships within your school system. Such relationships are of great importance as you progress in your ministry.
3. Assemble an after-school Good News Club team. One passionate person in your church will take on this task. This passionate person—the GNC coordinator—recruits a minimum of eight to 12 team members to lead the Good News Club. As the GNC grows, you may need to add more volunteers. To keep a GNC running smoothly, a ratio of one volunteer to seven children is best. Assembling a team must take place before the next step (meeting the principal).
4. CEF* schedules a meeting with your club coordinator and the school principal. Your CEF representative will set up a meeting involving CEF, the GNC coordinator, and the school principal. It will include discussion and logistical planning for conducting the GNC in the school. The meeting will be facilitated entirely by CEF but is a very important FIRST step for your church to establish a good working relationship with the principal and school, if you don't already have one.
5. Fulfill yearly training requirements. This required training provides everything you need to host and conduct a GNC. Before working in a GNC, all team volunteers must:
 - Complete an online volunteer application form (ministryopportunities.org/CEFKYappay) which includes the following:
 - Confidential Screening Form
 - Background and Reference Check Authorization
 - Agree to and sign the:
 - ✦ Statement of Faith (cefonline.com/statementoffaith)
 - ✦ Doctrinal Protection Policy (cefonline.com/wca)
 - ✦ Child Protection Policy (cefonline.com/policy)
 - Agree to use the provided CEF Press® curriculum.
6. CEF* staff will visit, mentor and encourage your club. A member(s) of the CEF staff will observe your GNC to encourage you and help you minister more effectively, ensuring that the GNC program is conducted uniformly throughout the state of Kentucky and across the nation. It is important that volunteers use the methods they learned in their CEF training so that their ministry is effective in helping children hear and understand the Gospel message. These methods are time-proven and easy to implement.

Financial Commitment to a Good News Club

The Cost Involved in Partnering with CEF to Host a Good News Club

The yearly cost for an “everything-included” (see next page) full partnership for the school year is $1800 ($150/month). This provides an opportunity to have ongoing weekly outreach with a large group of unreached children for a fraction of the cost of the average one-week Vacation Bible School. There are many ways to obtain these funds, but here are two popular options:

Option 1: Church Support

A church may choose to support the GNC collectively through several possible methods:

- Include the full amount ($1800) in the church’s annual budget like any other evangelism/missions/strategic outreach program. In this case, many churches choose to pay the partnership fee in quarterly or monthly installments.
- Conduct fundraising events to underwrite the cost of partnering with CEF.
- Solicit a business or church member to be a corporate sponsor for the club.

Option 2: Adopt-a-Club Program (Individual Support)

Our Adopt-a-Club program enables your people (i.e., volunteers on your GNC team and/or anyone else in your congregation willing and able to support the ministry) to personally underwrite the financial costs of a GNC.

Adopt-a-Club works like this: A small number of individuals from your congregation agree to support the ministry monthly for an entire school year. For example:

15 people give $10 per month for 12 months = $1,800 (yearly cost)

Don’t let cost stop you! Whether you choose one of the above options or develop your own plan, CEF will work with you and your church to help you fulfill the vision God gives you for reaching the next generation. Do not allow a lack of funds to prevent you from realizing that vision. If God wants you involved, He will meet your needs (Phil. 4:19).

Where do these funds go?

Of the $1,800 partnership cost, 10% goes toward starting clubs and chapters all over the state, nation, and world! The remaining 90% covers the costs of assisting your church with hosting your Good News Club. (See next page for a detailed cost breakdown.)

Financial Commitment (continued) to a Good News Club

2019 CEF of Kentucky Good News Club Church Partnership Program

When officially partnering with a host church, CEF:

1. Creates the bridge between your church and the school.
2. Provides the school with legal documents.
3. Provides required yearly training and background checks for the GNC team members.
4. Provides a $3 million liability insurance policy for all volunteers.
5. Provides a year's GNC curriculum.
6. Provides opportunities for continuing education, some for possible college credit (TCE).
7. Provides six-week "series" trainings and workshops in some chapters.
8. Provides ongoing communication and support for the GNC team.

Cost Breakdown:

The items below are included in your partnership

- Training for approx. 10 team members
- Background checks (copies available for your church with signed release)
- Liability insurance ($3 million coverage)
- Curriculum (print or PowerPoint versions)
- Children's tracts and Follow-up Materials
- Good News Club t-shirts for all screened volunteers
- Legal Assistance
- Ongoing Local Office and CEF Missionary Support
- CEF of Kentucky/National/Worldwide Outreach
- Holiday Party Lessons/Kits (Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter)

A full-year (summer included) partnership cost is $2400, which includes all of the above PLUS summer ministry curriculum and a scholarship to Christian Youth in Action® training for one of the youth from your church.

Child Evangelism Fellowship is a faith ministry. If a full partnership is not feasible for your church at this time, ask God to provide funds for the materials on a cost basis and we will seek to supplement the cost of partnership through the gifts of God's people.*

Logistics and Promotion of a Good News Club

Logistics

✦ What does an after-school Good News Club schedule look like?

The club is fast-moving and usually operates for 1½ hours one day each week. Club days follow the school's calendar—meeting for 24 weeks during the school year, typically September through April.

✦ What do Good News Club volunteers/teachers do?

Responsibilities for each GNC team position can be found on page 13 of this packet. These descriptions are basic. Additional positions may be needed as the club grows.

✦ How do children sign up for a Good News Club?

ALL Good News Clubs must use the official, pre-prepared CEF Registration Form for participant signups (see sample on page 12). A CEF staff member will customize this official legal document for you after the meeting with the school principal (see step 4 on page 3); it may not be altered in any way. The church is responsible for making copies of the blank registration forms on bright yellow paper. The distribution of the sign-up registration forms is based on the school's particular policies and procedures for all other after-school clubs.

✦ What about liability?

Because child security is of utmost importance, all volunteers who serve in any capacity in GNCs are covered by a $3 million liability insurance policy. This policy is renewed yearly and reflects the growth in our volunteer base. Each school year, all teams and schools are provided with this policy, which is covered by the church/CEF financial partnership fee. This policy is the strongest one available and is possible because of the CEF national child protection policy.

Logistics and Promotion (Continued) of a Good News Club

Promotion

Church Promotion

God works in so many wonderful ways at Good News Club! You can encourage the faith of your church by sharing through a variety of ways, such as:

- ✦ Newsletters
- ✦ DVDs or video presentations
- ✦ Brochures
- ✦ An information table in your church
- ✦ Weekly church bulletins
- ✦ Regular GNC presentations during your services
- ✦ Oral testimonies and prayer requests
- ✦ Year-end programs or banquets, that invite GNC kids and their parents to your church campus and provide opportunity for outreach and ministry!

School Promotion

It is important and easy to promote Good News Club at your school. The same policies apply to GNC as for any other after-school club. For example:

- ✦ Some clubs set up a table at an open house before the school year begins.
- ✦ Some club leaders attend a parent meeting and briefly (two minutes) share information about the Good News Club. Set up a table with registration forms so parents can register their children.
- ✦ Some clubs gain exposure at school and show support of the school by setting up a booth or game at the school's fall festival.
- ✦ All GNCs should be prepared to hand out registration forms and flyers at each weekly club meeting! GNC kids are your BEST promotion!

Statement of Faith, Doctrinal Protection Policy, and Worker's Compliance Agreement of Child Evangelism Fellowship®

Statement of Faith

We believe:

- ✦ That all Scripture is given by the inspiration of God, by which we understand the whole book called THE BIBLE; that it is inerrant in the original writing; and that its teaching and authority are absolute, supreme, and final. We believe that the Holy Spirit guided the holy men of old in all they wrote. (2 Tim. 3:16; Deut. 4:2; 2 Peter 1:21)
- ✦ The Godhead eternally exists in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. These three are one God, and have the same nature, attributes, and perfection. (Rom. 1:20; Matt. 28:19; Deut. 4:35; John 17:5)
- ✦ In the personality and deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, begotten of the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, truly God, and truly man. (John 1:1, 14; 10:30; Matt. 1:20; Luke 1:30–31; Phil. 2:5–7; 1 Tim. 3:16; Col. 1:19)
- ✦ In the personality and deity of the Holy Spirit, the source and power of all acceptable worship and service, the infallible interpreter of the infallible Word, who indwells every true believer, and is ever-present to testify of Christ—seeking to occupy us with Himself, not with ourselves or our experiences. (John 15:26; Acts 5:3–4; 1:8; Rom. 8:26–27; 1 Cor. 2:12, 14; Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 3:16; 12:13; John 16:13–14)
- ✦ That man was created in the image of God, after His likeness, as stated in the Word of God, but the whole human race fell in the fall of the first Adam. Not only was his moral nature grievously injured by the fall, but man totally lost all spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses, and subject to the power of the devil. “The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God” (Rom. 8:7–8, KJV). Therefore, man cannot see nor enter the kingdom of God until he is born again by the Holy Spirit. We believe that no degree of reformation, however great; no attainment in morality, however high; no culture, however attractive; no humanitarian and philanthropic schemes and societies, however useful; no baptism or other ordinance, however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward Heaven. Rather, a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word, is absolutely essential to salvation. (Gen. 1:26–27; Rom. 5:12; Eph. 2:1–3; John 3:3, 6–7; Titus 3:5)
- ✦ That Jesus Christ became the sinner's substitute before God and died as a propitiatory sacrifice for the sins of the whole world; that He was made a curse for the sinner, dying for His sins according to the Scriptures; that no repentance, feeling, faith, good resolutions, sincere efforts, or submission to the rules and regulations of any church can add in the very least to the value of the precious blood or to the merit of that finished work wrought for us by Him, who tasted death for every man. (1 John 2:2; Heb. 2:9; Gal. 3:13; Rom. 3:25; 4:4–5; 5:8; Col. 1:13–14, 20–21)
- ✦ In the resurrection of the crucified body of Jesus Christ; that His body was raised from the dead according to the Scriptures, and that He ascended into Heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God as the believer's high priest and advocate. (Luke 24:39; Acts 1:10–11; Eph. 4:10; Heb. 1:3; 1 John 2:1)
- ✦ That Christ, in the fullness of the blessings He has secured by His death and resurrection, is received by faith alone; that the moment we trust in Him as our Savior, we pass out of death into everlasting life, justified from all things, accepted before the Father according to the measure of His acceptance, loved as He is loved, and made one with Him. At the time of acceptance of Christ as Savior, He comes to dwell within us and live out His life of holiness and power through us. (Heb. 9:15; John 5:24; Rom. 3:28; 4:3, 23–25; Eph. 1:3; John 17:23; Gal. 2:20; 4:6–7; 5:16; Acts 1:8)
- ✦ That the Church is composed of all those who truly believe on the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior. The Church is the body and bride of Christ. We believe every believer, whether Jew or Gentile, is baptized into the body of Christ by the Holy Spirit, and having thus become members of one another, we are responsible to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, rising above all sectarian prejudices and denominational bigotry, and loving one another with a pure heart fervently. (Eph. 1:22–23; 2:19–22; 1 Cor. 12:22–27; 1:10–13; Rom. 12:4–5; Eph. 4:3–6; 5:32; Phil. 2:1–5; Gal. 5:13–15)
- ✦ That all believers in our Lord Jesus Christ are called into a life of separation from worldly and sinful practices, and should abstain from such amusements and habits as will cause others to stumble, or bring reproach upon the cross of Christ. Believers are created in Christ Jesus unto good works. “As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith” (Gal. 6:10, KJV). (1 John 2:15–16; Rom. 13:14; 14:13; 1 Cor. 10:31; Eph. 2:10)

- ✦ In the evangelization of the world: that the supreme mission of the people of God in this age is to preach the Gospel to every creature; and that special emphasis should be placed on the evangelization of children. (Mark 16:15; 2 Cor. 5:18–19; Matt. 18:14)
- ✦ In the personal return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, that the coming again of Jesus Christ is the “blessed hope” set before us, for which we should be constantly looking. “Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ” (Phil. 3:20, ESV). (Acts 1:11; 1 Thess. 4:16–17; John 14:1–3; Titus 2:13; Phil. 3:20–21)
- ✦ That the souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation do at death immediately pass into His presence, and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the body at His coming, when soul and body reunited shall be with Him forever in glory. (Luke 23:43; 2 Cor. 5:8; Luke 16:22, 25; Phil. 1:23; 1 Thess. 4:15–18)
- ✦ That the souls of the lost remain after death in misery until the final judgment of the great white throne, when soul and body reunited at the resurrection shall be cast “into the lake of fire,” which is “the second death,” to be “punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power.” (Luke 16:22–23, 27–28; Heb. 9:27; Rev. 20:5, 11–15; 2 Thess. 1:7–9)
- ✦ In the reality and personality of Satan, “that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world” (Rev. 12:9, KJV). (Eph. 6:11–12; 1 Peter 5:8; Rev. 20:10)

Doctrinal Protection Policy

Adopted by CEF International Board of Trustees on May 6, 2002

Child Evangelism Fellowship® continues in its commitment to its “Statement of Faith,” which embodies the nonnegotiable and historic beliefs of evangelical Christians. Within the community of evangelical believers, various distinctive beliefs exist that do not prevent our fellowship in the Lord and our effectiveness as child evangelists. We therefore resolve that CEF workers are qualified by their unreserved commitment to CEF’s Statement of Faith and their further commitment, in all CEF activities, to refrain from teaching or otherwise advocating doctrinal distinctives either contrary to or in addition to the Statement of Faith.

Child Evangelism Fellowship® Worker’s Compliance Agreement

Recognizing the spiritual need of boys and girls in our community and around the world, I would like to assist in the work of Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF).

I understand that CEF is without specific denominational affiliation, and have read the Statement of Faith and CEF Doctrinal Protection Policy. In becoming a coworker with CEF, and in order to protect the ministry, I agree not to propagate or practice in CEF ministries any distinctive or controversial doctrines, methods and practices that would go beyond the CEF Statement of Faith and the approved CEF curriculum. These would include but not be limited to such things as modes of baptism, speaking in tongues, interpretation of Scripture by experience, healing on demand, etc. I understand that anyone who does not adhere to this agreement cannot serve with CEF as paid staff or volunteer.

In teaching Bible lessons in core CEF programs I will use exclusively materials approved by CEF.

In offering my services I trust the Lord to make me a faithful servant, and should problems arise between CEF and me that cannot be fully reconciled, I will quietly withdraw to preserve the harmony essential to having an effective Christian witness.

By signing below, I indicate: My agreement with the Statement of Faith, and that

- I will abide by the above Worker’s Compliance Agreement, and that
- I will abide by the policies of CEF as long as I am actively involved.
- I have reviewed the Protecting Today’s Child presentation (866-878-4182 or www.cefonline.com/childprotection) in the last 12 months.

If you have a question about a specific policy or to see a complete copy of all policies, contact your director.

Supreme Court Decision and Legal Matters Related to CEF Good News Clubs

Good News Club v. Milford Central School

June 11, 2001

Equal Access: A Brief Synopsis

What was the Court's holding?

Milford Central School violated the rights of the Good News Club under the Free Speech Clause of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Milford would not have violated the First Amendment's Establishment Clause (often referred to as "separation of church and state") if it had allowed the club to meet.

What was the Court's reasoning underlying its Free Speech Clause determination?

It was already well settled that the Free Speech Clause forbids government from treating speech differently based on its viewpoint. The Court held that Milford violated this rule. The Court concluded that the Scouts were focused on morals and character from a secular perspective. The Court concluded that the club was addressing the same subject matter (morals and character), albeit from a religious perspective.

What was the Court's reasoning underlying its Establishment Clause determination?

First, equal treatment of religious speakers is not endorsement of religion. Neutrality is neutrality, not favoritism. Second, parents get to decide whether their kids attend club meetings. To the extent children are confused about the school district's connection with the club, that confusion is not constitutionally significant, because kids are not free to act on that confusion. Third, the concern about children's potential misperceptions cannot be considered in a vacuum. Although some might draw an incorrect inference (favoritism) from equal treatment, the Court must consider the impact of a policy that discriminates and excludes the club. Kids would likely perceive a message of government hostility to religion. It is unlikely that they would understand that the discrimination is the product of nuanced and subtle constitutional law doctrines; instead they will infer hostility. Also, an actual violation of constitutional rights cannot be justified by invoking speculative fears that some will get the wrong idea.

Good News Club: Knowing Your Rights

CEF and its Good News Club ministry is in an exceptional position to gain access to public schools for meeting purposes. In the seminal case Good News Club v. Milford Central Sch. (533 U.S. 98 [2001]), the Supreme Court of the United States specifically decided that Bible clubs such as Good News Clubs must be given the same access to school facilities accorded to any other non-school-related outside group. Therefore, the Court has made clear that a school may not deny a Good News Club permission to use its facilities because it is a religious club.

If the school denies the use of the school facilities to the Good News Club when other outside groups are allowed access to the school facilities, the school is probably engaging in unconstitutional viewpoint discrimination. In addition to the aforementioned case, reference Lamb's Chapel v. Center Moriches Union Free Sch. Dist. (508 U.S. 385 [1993]).

If the school denies the use of its facilities, take these steps:

1. Obtain the reason for denial at the time you are denied use of the school or as soon thereafter as possible; and
2. Contact CEF of Kentucky at (270) 735-9441. If necessary, we will confer with Liberty Counsel about your situation and receive advice about the appropriate next steps.*

*It is impossible to predict all of the scenarios that may occur regarding Good News Club meetings in a public school. Therefore, it is essential that you notify us of any possible problems so that we may assist you in your mission. Usually, we can help you resolve these issues with a simple phone call.

Principals Speak Out about Good News Clubs

These data and quotes are from a voluntary survey administered by CEF. The survey was taken by 232 public elementary school principals (representing 28 states) whose schools host a Good News Club.

To your knowledge, has the Good News Club been a positive experience in the school?

Quotes from responses to the question, “What aspects of the Good News Club program have you appreciated?”

“It allows the students and families of my school to have an extended learning opportunity connecting home/school/ church. It allows students at the school to enhance their personal relationships with one another through the Good News Club activities. It fosters a positive connection between [the] school character program and Good News Club traits.”

“Reading practice, mentoring, positive role models.”

“The students who are in the GNC rarely receive discipline referrals to the office. Undoubtedly, the club has been a successful part in our curbing bullying and classroom disrespect from children.”

“Students love the program. Parents are excited to have the program in our school. The Good News Club works with us to promote good choices among children.”

Pastor/Church References Related to CEF Good News Clubs

"Pastors are spread very thin across various ministries, church activities, day-to-day life, shepherding, preaching, teaching, etc. So to ask a pastor to take on something else, like personal evangelism inside the local public school, would be daunting, to say the least. And that, in my opinion, is one of the beautiful things regarding the ministry of CEF. To think that CEF will take care of getting past all the legal hurdles, contact local school officials, train church volunteers, provide materials, and work with the churches to launch the Good News Clubs, evangelize the children, lead them to the Lord as the Holy Spirit moves, establish family contacts, and then plant those families in the local churches who are working with them, my immediate response was, "We're in. Where do we sign up?" And then to think that there is more: summer clubs, youth camps, and CEF doing clubs elsewhere, like at our local backpack give-away, where four children were saved. Praise the Lord! I recommend every pastor make every effort to work with CEF and establish relationships in their local schools through Good News Clubs. I can't get past the thought of what my community could look like in a few years, if every child, in every elementary school, participated in a Good News Club. Talk about a harvest! Can you just imagine?"

--Jim Freimuth, Senior Pastor
Bethesda Community Church, Independence, KY

"I have found all the materials we use in the club to be very comprehensive, easy to follow and teach, very well written, theologically sound and always true to the teaching of the Bible. The Good News Clubs we have taught have been a great time of evangelism and discipleship among the kids. Getting to know the kids in the club gives me as a pastor entry to homes that I would never be able to enter otherwise. Running the Good News Club has been a very positive experience for us in every way. I highly recommend them."

--Dale & Ann Beighle
Turner Ridge Baptist Church, Falmouth, KY

"Over the past eight years I have had the privilege to work with Child Evangelism Fellowship as the pastor of White Mills Baptist Church. Two aspects of CEF that appeal to me are that CEF is biblical and that CEF is evangelistic. They provide in depth training for our church members on how to teach children the Bible and how to lead a child to Christ. Numerous children have come to a saving knowledge of Christ through the Good News Club. Since 2011 our church, which averages about 100 in Sunday morning worship, has baptized 35 children. Many of these children were saved during the Good News Club, which utilizes these CEF trained church members. Several years ago some of the Good News Club children at our local elementary school, who did not attend church anywhere, were saved, baptized and are now part of our youth program."

--Rev. Bruce Underhill, Pastor
White Mills Baptist Church, White Mills, KY

Related to CEF Good News Clubs

What is the CEF-Good News Club? The answer is an opportunity you should not pass up. The Good News Club is an opportunity to each week share the Gospel with students. The Good News Club is an opportunity each week to help ground young students who have professed Jesus Christ as Savior in the Word of God. The Good News Club is an opportunity to each week help connect students who are unchurched to a local body of believers so that they can be discipled. Sound good so far? It should. Each week a team of trained and equipped individuals from local churches meets with groups of students in schools, community centers or churches...basically anywhere the children can easily and safely meet with their parent's permission. Weekly the team will present an exciting Bible lesson which also includes songs, memory verses, a mission's story, and review games or other activities focused on the lesson's theme. This is an action-packed time very similar to Vacation Bible School. If you love VBS, you will love the Good News Club. The Good News Club is a unique opportunity to make an eternal difference in the life of a child and it is the only church some students will have or be able to attend. We live in a day and age when the majority of students do not attend church. What better way to expose them to the Gospel than meeting them where they are? The English philosopher Edmund Burke is purported to have said, "all that is necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." Does that phrase describe us? I believe God has opened the door for His church to be able to take His redemptive message of salvation through Jesus Christ to students who are lost and those who need discipled. We must walk through that door or give an account. Would you prayerfully consider starting a Good News Club in your community? You can do it...you really can. God will be glorified and the lost will have the opportunity to know Jesus. What are you waiting for? I am praying for you. I don't know you, but I am praying you will start a Good News Club and introduce lost students to Jesus. Let me know if I can be of assistance in any way. God Bless.

"As a leader in our local bridge builder ministry building bridges between the church and schools, I've found that the Good News Club is one of the most powerful opportunities available today to enlist volunteers and teachers in order to engage children on a public school campus and by extension impact families with the Gospel. I can say from personal and pastoral experience at two churches, Child Evangelism Fellowship provides excellent training for volunteers, great Bible lesson and activity materials, and wonderful leadership to enable any church of any size to effectively reach and see children come to Christ on the public school campus. And I can say from experience working with Christian public school educators throughout the U.S. that many Christian teachers are waiting for the local church to come along side through such an open invitation. Frankly, I don't know why a church wouldn't get involved!"

Think About It

To preserve our Judeo-Christian heritage, we must reach the next generation with the life-changing Gospel of Jesus Christ!

George Barna of The Barna Group (a research organization focused on the intersection of faith and culture) reports that children's ministries nationwide are the lowest-funded of any church ministry.

How are you reaching children and the next generation in and beyond your local church? Are your people passionate about seeing the unchurched come to know the great love of Jesus?

CEF of Kentucky stands committed and ready to help you and your congregation to develop a plan to reach out to the approximately 80% of unchurched children and their families in your community. With top-notch training (some for college credit) and partnerships, CEF can equip you to minister more effectively to children in your own church, public schools, community, military bases, and juvenile detention centers.

A hundred years from now, you and I will not be here. Are we passing the torch to the next generation? Partner with CEF of Kentucky to reach children now. It will be the best investment you can make in the future!

See the next page for contact information so you can begin your partnership today.

When you reach children, you never know who they will become — or who they will go on to influence!

Have you ever heard of Edward Kimball? He was a Sunday school teacher who lived many years ago and taught at Mt. Vernon Congregational Church in Boston, Massachusetts. One of his Sunday school students was D.L. Moody. Kimball went to Holton's Shoe Store, young Moody's place of employment, and led him to Christ. Moody, of course, went on to become one of history's great evangelists.

Preaching in England, Moody reached a businessman named F.B. Meyer. Meyer became a preacher and writer of Christian materials.

A Gospel tract written by Meyer was read by a young man named Wilbur Chapman. Chapman received Christ and later went into the ministry and conducted revivals.

A young baseball player came to one of Chapman's meetings and went forward to receive Christ. His name was Billy Sunday.

Sunday preached revivals all over the country. At one of his meetings a young Jewish boy heard the message and was saved. His name was Mordecai Ham.

As Ham preached a revival in western North Carolina, a young boy came forward to receive Christ. His name was Billy Graham, one of the greatest evangelists of all time.
